Postcard from the edge?

Just had a birthday last month. Some stupid number I never thought I'd find associated with my name. At this age, I'm humorously trying to stay up with my technologically savvy daughters. Whether it's cell phone acumen or computer skills - take your pick - I basically suck. So, before I venture into the WOT world otherwise know as "Twitter," I thought I'd try practicing my texting skills via this message.

OMG! New Releases: 2007 Segromigno and 2008 Cuvée Blanc. Goofy names, eh?

Segromigno = Sangiovese + Montepulciano = true love. Cuvée Blanc = Unti white wine. Am sure U will like both wines :), but not many cases. Act B4 it's 2 L8. 4 info on wines, C R re-designed website: untivineyards.com
